School Membership Criteria

- Curriculum main focus is Feng Shui. Additional programs do not prohibit eligibility (such as dowsing, business, space clearing) as long as primary coursework offered is Feng Shui.
- Minimum certification course length is 40 hours which can include both self-study and live interaction.
- Some in-person or online live interaction required. Cannot be exclusively self-study; exclusive self-study opportunities defaults to continuing education.

Gold Designation – Linked School Memberships may apply for Gold Designation if they meet the following:

- Certification course must present a minimum of 35 hours of Universal Topics as part of curriculum.
- School director must be a Red Ribbon Professional member.
- Submit application for review by IFSG review team and are approved for Gold designation.

IFSG members, who are Gold Designated Program graduates, are eligible to take the Red Ribbon Assessment at any time. IFSG members who studied from any other program not designated as Gold, either IFSG member school or non-member school, may sign up for the Assessment after a minimum of one year of IFSG membership.
